

The Wisconsin do not call list is wonderful, and it works very well. I am very pleased with its success. I am also very happy that my elderly father, who is also on the list, is not being bothered with phone calls. Most telemarketing organizations are just a front for a scam anyway. They are the equivalent of, and were the first form of spam.